

Namesco Challenge

Model factory and database Seeder

With a single command we fill the whole database with the fake data for a testing purposes.

Model factory is representation of a fake data to get created for a specific model.

We need some fake data to make the design work